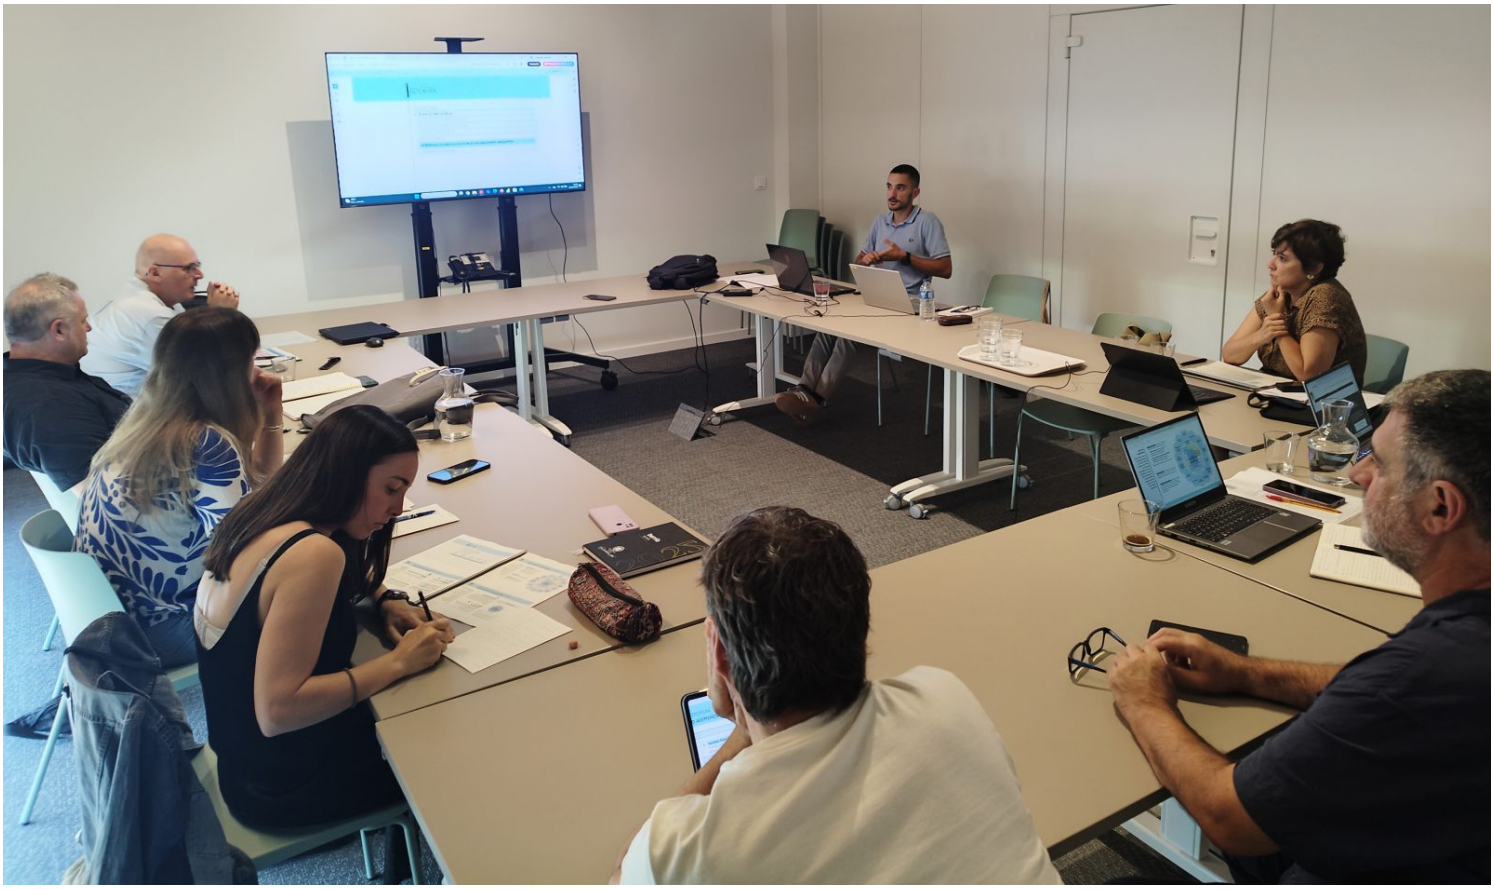
On Friday, 19 September, Naider took part in the meeting of the Oarsoaldea steering committee to share progress in the formulation of the strategy for the Oarsoaldea Strategic Plan 2025-2035. The session was held at Oarsolan, in Errenteria.

Representing Naider was our colleague Jokin Etxebarria, Coordinator of Economy and Innovation, who presented the lines of work developed to date and discussed with the committee the strategic priorities that will guide the region over the coming decade.


The meeting made it possible to move forward in defining a shared framework of objectives and actions, which will be key to guiding the economic, social, and territorial development of Oarsoaldea in the years ahead.
