NAIDER PRESENTED THE URBAPPS SOCIAL INNOVATION INITIATIVE AT VALLAHACKATHON

Posted on 08/03/2013 by Naider

Last Thursday, March 7 We were presenting the URBAPPS social innovation initiative for the creation of mobile applications to improve the city at the hackathon held in Valladolid Vallahackathon.

We were sharing and applying concepts such as social innovation, collaborative innovation, design thinking to the world of apps for cities. Below is the link to the presentation made.
