

#NAIDERCOP21 (EIGHTH DAY): FRANCE DEMANDS AN ACCELERATION OF THE NEGOTIATIONS

Posted on 07/12/2015 by Naider

Eighth day of COP21.

Laurent Fabius (senior French diplomat, chairman of the negotiations at the Bourget) called the past Friday to the countries participating in the summit to speed up the negotiations. He affirms that the mandate given by the heads of state at the inauguration of the summit is clear and unequivocal, and there is still a lot of work ahead. The negotiations have an end point: Friday the 11th at 6:00 p.m., and the French diplomat has expressed his frustration at the slow pace of work. The week is packed with exciting news and developments.

There are no comments yet.