

#NAIDERCOP21 (FOURTH DAY): SPACE "CLIMATE GENERATIONS"

Posted on 03/12/2015 by Naider

Fourth day of COP21.

We are now in the “Généralions climat” space at the Bourget where different debates, conferences and round tables take place every day, especially in the Nelson Mandela auditorium. Around 350 European and international civil society agents participate in these spaces throughout the Summit.
