

#NAIDERCOP21 (TENTH DAY): ONE MILLION COMMITMENTS FOR THE CLIMATE

Posted on 09/12/2015 by Naider

Tenth day of COP21.

Spain is going to present at COP21 the initiative "One million commitments for the climate", a project that has indeed achieved its objective of adding one million supports to the fight against climate change. Large and medium-sized companies, associations, foundations, public administrations and thousands of citizens, as well as other entities and organizations have joined the initiative, which started last June.
