

WHAT WOULD A CITY DESIGNED BY WOMEN LOOK LIKE?

Posted on 07/11/2019 by Naider

Urban planning conditions the functioning of the city and its inhabitants. To date, those who have planned cities have been mostly men of working age thinking about the needs of men of working age. This has triggered in today's cities, zoned into production areas and rest areas connected by heavily motorized mobility.

To start getting a glimpse of what a city designed by women might look like, the BBC has spoken with several women who have participated and continue to participate in the design of urban space in the city of Barcelona and have carried out interventions that meet the needs of all kinds of groups.
