

WHAT YOUR MOBILE HIDES

Posted on 15/07/2014 by Naider

From the NGO Alboan they have launched the "Conflict Free Technology" campaign, with the aim of publicizing the connection between our mobile phones, computers and tablets with the war in the East of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the conflict in which Unfortunately, more people have died since the Second World War.

We leave you the video, What your mobile phone hides, so that we really realize how something that we think is so far away is in our hands.
