

WHICH COUNTRY DOES THE MOST GOOD?

Posted on 15/07/2014 by Naider

We share a very interesting TED talk, in which we are presented with a ranking of benefactor countries worldwide.

Based on the fact that one of the side effects of globalization is that problems that were once local now have worldwide consequences, Simon Anholt, political adviser, makes a funny, entertaining and surprising exposition recounting an unusual scale of government, based on which country does the most good.
