

SPAIN'S REGIONAL COMPETITIVENESS REPORT 2023

Posted on 08/02/2024 by Naider

What is the level of competitiveness of the 17 Autonomous Communities, how are they evolving and how do they compare in terms of economic and social well-being?

The latest Report on Regional Competitiveness in Spain, published by the General Council of Economists of Spain, presented the 2022 results of the Regional Competitiveness Index (ICREG) and elaborated an analysis based on socio-economic indicators, also incorporating a brief description to approach the competitive capacity of companies from a territorial perspective.
