

GLOBAL GENDER GAP REPORT 2024

Posted on 16/06/2024 by Naider

The World Economic Forum's annual Global Gender Gap Report has been published, which assesses the current status and evolution of gender parity in four key dimensions: economic participation and opportunity, educational attainment, health and survival, and political empowerment.

The largest gaps in Europe are found in political empowerment (the gap has closed to only 35.7%) and economic participation (68%)
