As part of the design and organisation of the Basque Health and Environment Observatory project, NAIDER organised a meeting with health and environment experts to enrich the design phase with their impressions and contributions.

The session brought together senior representatives from leading organisations: Marina Lacasaña, director of the Andalusian Health and Environment Observatory; Carolyn Daher, public health specialist at the Barcelona Institute for Global Health; Manuel Franco, researcher at the BC3 Basque Centre for Climate Change; Aitana Lertxundi and Jesús Ibarluzea, researchers from the Biogipuzkoa Health Research Institute; Manuel Subiza Pérez and Unai Martín, researchers from the University of the Basque Country; Joseba Garrido Urkullu and Aitor Cevidanes, researchers from Neiker; and Efrén Feliu, Area Manager at Tecnalia.

The meeting was supported by technological platforms to make the debate more dynamic and to address the different topics in an interactive way.
