Naider will collaborate with Ihobe S.A. to carry out the management of the evaluation of environmental protection business projects for the years 2019 and 2020. The work will focus on managing and evaluating the applications of those companies that request subsidies from the Department of the Environment , Territorial Planning and Housing of the Basque Government to make investments aimed at protecting the environment. The budget for the call for subsidies will amount to more than 1,500,000 euros, and the lines in which companies can present their projects include adaptation to future environmental regulations of the European Union, environmental studies and recycling and reuse of waste , among other.
