Naider participates in the start-up of the entity promoting the regional development of Durangaldea (Bizkaia, Basque Country) with the participation of public and private entities.

DEK is an initiative of the Durangaldea region aimed at economic promotion and improving the competitiveness of the territory. Naider has been able to contribute in the definition and constitution of the collaboration tool between public, business, educational and technological agents of the territory.

DEK has been organized around a promoter committee that has developed an Action Plan and a Road Map for its implementation.
