

NAIDER ASSISTS THE BASQUE ENVIRONMENTAL AGENCY IN MATTERS OF ECO-EFFICIENCY

Posted on 06/11/2015 by Naider

Category: News

The Basque Environmental Agency, Ihobe, has entrusted Naider with carrying out a series of synthetic analyzes on various issues related to eco-efficiency in the industry. The analysis activities have materialized in the identification of various sectoral trends and eco-efficiency indicators in the Basque Country AC, as well as a synthetic evaluation of the economic impact of the eco-efficiency program launched by the Basque administration.

In the technical direction of the work has been Iñaki Barredo who is an eco economist -industrial with a long history in the definition of actions aimed at improving the environmental variable in the productive fabric and the development of innovation and sustainability policies.

