Yesterday, 15 October, Naider met with representatives of the town councils of the Oarsoaldea region. This meeting marks the start of the Oarsoaldea Strategic Plan 2025-2035. This initiative, developed by the Oarsoaldea Development Agency, will consist of a broad reflection process that will help to define the strategic lines to be followed over the next ten years. In general, it will take into account the relevant actions for the development of the Oarsoaldea, from the economy related to the sea to the social integration of the most vulnerable groups.

Tuesday's meeting was attended by Aizpea Otaegi, mayor of Errenteria, Joana Mendiburu, mayor of Oiartzun, and Mikel Arruti, mayor of Lezo. Their opinions, suggestions and comments are of great value for the development of the Strategic Plan. Other relevant actors in the economic promotion, social development and ecological transition of the Oarsoaldea will also participate in the process, helping to define new strategic lines and actions.
