This week we have started the BIRATU Project for the transition towards a circular economy in Oarsoaldea. Iván de Torres and Haizea Agirre have given two training sessions on the subject to technical staff of Oarsoaldea Garapen Agentzia, reviewing theoretical concepts of the circular economy and exploring opportunities for the application of this circular competitiveness approach in companies in the Oarsoaldea region.

Over the coming months we will visit companies from different sectors to apply the CICLO methodology developed by NAIDER and identify specific actions to increase their competitiveness through the circular economy approach, which will also enable the development of joint business symbiosis projects.
