THE FIRST TECHNICAL COMMITTEE OF THE UDALSAREA NETWORK FOR THE YEAR 2023 HAS BEEN HELD

Posted on 28/03/2023 by Naider

Category: News
Tags: Agenda 2030, Ecociudades, Transición ecológica

The 62nd Technical Committee of Udalsarea was held today at the Donostia/San Sebastian City Hall, attended by representatives of the municipalities of the Basque Autonomous Community.

The committee provided information on the network's management plan, including the activity of the last six months and the lines of work to be promoted in the next three months, Donostia presented its experience in the circular economy to further the sustainability of tourism, the programme 'Youth employment in climate change and energy transition in the local administration', which is being carried out with 24 entities, has been detailed, and the support services of the Local Agenda 2030, the order of aid for local sustainable development (call for applications 2023) and the presentation of the Guide to the local dimension of the School Agenda 2030 have been shared.