NAIDER organises a workshop with international experts on financial instruments and economic incentives to boost the decarbonisation of the built environment.

On 10 and 15 March 2022, you can watch live the Workshop: "FINANCING BUILT ENVIRONMENT DECARBONISATION. ExpertsGroup Meeting" where we will discuss with international experts on new financial instruments, innovative socio-economic schemes, the role of the circular economy or energy sufficiency in order to achieve the decarbonisation targets set for 2050 by the European Union and to promote a more sustainable built environment without leaving anyone behind.
